1.1.0 Description of Cost Accounting System

The University of Connecticut has a financial accounting system based on fund accounting. Expenses charge to Federally sponsored agreements are charged in the following ways:

Direct Costs

Direct costs are charged on a cash basis, however in determining the final costs for sponsored agreement reporting purposes, all costs that were incurred during the sponsored agreement period but not paid are included for the final costs.

Indirect Cost and Fringe Benefit Rates

Indirect cost rates are based on the University's annual financial statements, which include normal accruals for salaries, fringe benefits, and accounts payable. Indirect costs are accumulated and allocated as described in Part III of this document and are negotiated and approved by the Department of Health and Human Services, the University's cognizant agency.

Fringe benefits are charged to sponsored agreements based on rates negotiated by the University of Connecticut with DHHS. The rates are a percentage of salaries paid. Fringe Benefits are recorded in the accounting system when the salary charge is made.

1.2.0 Integration of Cost Accounting with Financial Accounting

Direct costs charged to sponsored agreements are fully integrated with the University's financial accounting system.

The amounts included in the University's indirect cost pools are based on cost information generated by the financial accounting system. The data obtained from the financial accounting system and financial statements is adjusted and reclassified into the cost pools and bases required by the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The specific adjustments and reclassifications are listed and described in schedules included in the University's indirect cost proposal.

REVISION NUMBER 4, EFFECTIVE DATE 12/26/14

As discussed in 3.1.0, state central service costs, interest related to individual construction projects, and some of the costs in the departmental administration pool, are not accumulated by the formal accounting system and must therefore be accumulated through cost finding techniques or other calculations. The allocation of indirect costs and development of indirect cost rates are also accomplished through cost finding procedures which are not part of the formal accounting system.

1.3.0 Unallowable Costs

Unallowable costs, as defined in the CFR, must be charged to specific accounts or object codes in the financial accounting system. The costs recorded in these accounts or object codes are excluded from the direct and indirect costs charged to sponsored agreements. Additionally, costs incurred by organizational units whose overall activities are unallowable (e.g., University Development, Alumni Relations, etc.) are identified within the financial accounting system at the department or account level and removed from the indirect cost pools allocated to sponsored agreements. Reviews to assure compliance with these policies are made initially at the department level, then by the offices for Sponsored Programs Services, Cost Analysis, and the Office of Audit, Compliance and Ethics.

1.3.1 Treatment of Unallowable Costs

Unallowable costs are excluded from charges to Federally sponsored agreements. Unallowable directly associated costs as defined in CAS 505 are also excluded from charges to Federally sponsored agreements.

As required by CAS 505, where unallowable costs would normally be part of a regular indirect cost allocation base, they remain in that base. This is accomplished by classifying unallowable costs as "Other Institutional Activities" and allocating indirect costs to these activities as part of the normal indirect cost allocation process. The classification of unallowable activities as Other Institutional Activities is required by the CFR Appendix III A.1.d.. In the interest of consistency, the University has elected to treat all unallowable costs in this manner if the unallowable costs are the types of costs that would be included in the Modified Total Direct Cost (MTDC) base specified in the CFR Appendix III C.2. An exception to this treatment is made for cost overruns and other unallowable direct costs of sponsored agreements. These costs remain in the same direct cost base as the sponsored agreement if they are the types of costs that would be included in the MTDC base required by the CFR.

2.1.0 Criteria for Determining How Costs are Charged to Federally Sponsored Agreements or Similar Cost Objectives

The University follows the general guidelines in sections 200.413 and 200.414 of the CFR in determining the treatment of costs as direct or indirect. Accordingly, costs that can be identified specifically with a particular sponsored project, instructional activity, or other institutional activity, or can be directly assigned to such activities relatively easily with a high degree of accuracy, are treated as direct costs. Conversely, costs incurred for common or joint objectives, which cannot be identified readily and specifically with a particular sponsored project, instructional activity or other institutional activity, are treated as indirect costs. The University's indirect costs are consistent with the definitions of specific indirect cost categories in the CFR Appendix III.B.

The University also follows the guidelines in the CFR Appendix III B.6.b. that specify the normal treatment of certain costs commonly incurred by academic departments and organized research units.

Every effort is made to classify costs incurred for the same purpose, in like circumstances, consistently as either direct or indirect costs. As cited later in this section, specific policies have been established by the University to help accomplish this objective. All sponsored agreement proposals are reviewed by Sponsored Programs Services for consistent treatment of costs in budgets.

Within academic departments and organized research units, major cost categories are treated as follows:

- Salaries and fringe benefits of faculty, research associates, technicians, graduate students and the other types of personnel listed in 2.4.0. associated with effort on research projects, instructional activities and other direct cost objectives, are treated as direct costs. Salaries and fringe benefits of faculty and professional staff associated with administrative activities are treated as indirect costs.
- Salaries and fringe benefits of administrative and clerical staff are normally treated as indirect costs, as required by the CFR Appendix III B.6.b.. However, in accordance with Appendix III B.6.b. of the CFR, these costs are treated as direct costs when the nature of the work performed under a particular project requires an extensive amount of administrative or clerical support and the costs meet general criteria for direct charging in the CFR (i.e., can be identified specifically with the project). These situations are considered "unlike circumstances" under CAS 502. The University has established specific policies on this subject in Policy Statement No. CADS-1, "Direct and Indirect Costs of Federal Grants and Contracts", which parallel the provisions of the CFR. Policy Statement No. CADS-1 was issued on June 19, 1998 and was effective on July 1, 1998.

REVISION NUMBER 4, EFFECTIVE DATE 12/26/14

- The cost of laboratory supplies, (e.g., chemicals, glassware, etc.), instructional supplies, animals, animal care and other specialized services, travel, consulting services, long distance telephone toll charges and the other items enumerated in 2.2.0 and 2.7.0 identifiable to research, instruction, or other direct cost objectives are treated as direct costs.
- Rent and other facility costs of off-campus facilities used to conduct research or other direct cost objectives are also treated as direct costs.
- The costs of office supplies, postage, local (basic) telephone costs, and memberships in business, professional, and technical organizations are treated as indirect costs, except under the conditions specified in Policy Statement CADS-1, which the University considers “unlike circumstances” under CAS 502.

As indicated above, the University’s policies permit direct charges for administrative and clerical salaries, office supplies, postage, local telephone expenses, and memberships only under exceptional circumstances consistent with the CFR Appendix III B.6.b. In implementing these policies, the University relies on the judgment of principal investigators and other responsible officials to determine whether these circumstances exist for a particular project, and requires that proposed direct charges for these costs be fully justified to sponsoring agencies in grant applications and contract proposals. For programs that do not require submission of a project budget to the sponsoring agency (such as NIH modular grants), the costs must be justified and approved by a designated University official. If a need for these costs arises after a project’s budget has been approved, a rebudgeting action to permit direct charging the costs to the project requires a justification and approval of a designated University official.

Cost normally treated as indirect, such as administrative and clerical salaries, are charged directly to non-federal sponsored agreements if permitted by the sponsor. Since these costs would have otherwise been included in the indirect costs allocable to Federally sponsored agreements, this practice reduces the costs of Federal programs.

To assure consistent treatment of costs between sponsored agreements and non-sponsored activities, “Direct Charge Equivalents” (DCEs) are used to assign an appropriate amount of departmental operating fund expenses (e.g., general support salaries, travel, telephone expenses) directly to instruction and other non-sponsored direct cost objectives. DCEs are mathematical formulas which estimate the portion of operating fund expenses that should be assigned directly to non-sponsored activities, and the portion that should be included in the Department Administration indirect cost pool. (See description of the accumulation of Department Administration expenses in 3.1.0.) The use of DCEs is a long established accounting convention at academic institutions that is designed to help achieve consistent treatment of costs as required by the CFR and CAS 502, and at the same time recognize the generally accepted accounting practices of the institutions.

2.2.0 Description of Direct Materials

The principal types of materials and supplies charged directly to sponsored agreements and other direct cost objectives include chemicals, glassware, drugs, books and periodicals, minor equipment items (i.e., those below the University's capitalization threshold of $5,000), uniforms, computer software and supplies, photographic supplies, and tools.

2.4.0 Description of Direct Personal Services

The principal classes of direct personal service costs are faculty, technicians, lab assistants research assistants, research associates, post-doctoral fellows, program assistant, university educational assistant, graduate students and other students. The direct charges include salaries and fringe benefits.

The salaries and fringe benefits of administrative and clerical staff are charged directly under the conditions described under 2.1.0.

2.5.0 & 2.5.2 Salary and Wages Accumulation System

Responsible officials determine and record the planned (budgeted) distribution of each employee's salary on a payroll distribution form based on an estimate of the employee's effort distribution. The completed payroll distribution forms are used to determine the initial charges for salary costs to sponsored agreements. After-the-fact activity reports, as described in section 200.430 of the CFR, are used to determine the actual distribution of employee salaries. Where the actual distribution differs from the budgeted distribution, the charges to sponsored agreements are appropriately adjusted in the accounting system.

The salary distribution system identifies the salaries directly charged to sponsored agreements as well as the salaries the University of Connecticut contributes to sponsored agreements as cost sharing. The University of Connecticut's cost sharing Policy Statement No. CADS-2, "Cost Sharing" was issued on June 19, 1998 and became effective on July 1, 1998.

2.6.0 Description of Direct Fringe Benefit Costs

The following fringe benefits attributable to organized research, instruction and other direct cost objectives are treated as direct costs:

- State Employee Retirement System (SERS) Contributions
- Alternate Retirement Plan
- Teacher's Retirement Plan
- SERS Hybrid Retirement Plan (R)
- Unemployment Compensation
- Group Life Insurance
- Social Security and Medicare
- Medical Insurance
- Worker Compensation

Leave costs (e.g., vacation, holiday, sick leave) are included in the normal charges for salaries.

2.6.1 Method of Charging Direct Fringe Benefits

All fringe benefits, except leave costs, are charged to cost objectives based on fringe benefit rates negotiated with the Department of Health and Human Services, Cost Allocation Services. Fringe benefit costs are projected annually based on actual prior year costs, adjusted as necessary to reflect significant changes in anticipated costs. Carry-forward adjustments are made in the rate computation to compensate for prior year over-or under-recoveries. Effective July 1, 2011, the University has established separate fringe benefit rates for the following classes of employees:

- Faculty
- Temporary with retirement
- Temporary without retirement
- Student Labor
- Graduate Assistants
- Other Professional

2.7.0 Description of Other Direct Costs

Principal categories of other direct costs include: travel; consulting services; participant and subject costs; animals; animal care and other specialized and technical services; publication costs; subawards; equipment; alterations and renovations needed to meet specific project requirements; long distance telephone expenses; repair and maintenance of equipment; rent and other facility costs of off-campus facilities.

2.8.0 Cost Transfers

For the vast majority of cost transfers, the amount credited for direct costs and applicable indirect costs is the same as the amount originally charged for these costs. However, if a transfer crosses fiscal years, the indirect cost rate of the new year is used in determining the amount credited to the project. These situations are relatively rare and when they occur they often involve follow-on years of the same project. The University does not believe that this practice has a material effect on charges to sponsored agreements. A modification of the University's practices to use the original rates for indirect costs would require costly systems changes and labor-intensive monitoring procedures that would not be cost effective.

2.9.0 Interorganizational Transfers

UConn Health provides services to UConn Storrs as a sub-recipient under some sponsored agreements awarded to UConn Storrs. In these situations, the direct costs incurred by UConn Health are charged to the sub-award, plus applicable indirect costs. The appropriate on-campus or off-campus rate of UConn Health is applied.

- 3.2.0 Service Centers. Service centers are departments or functional units which perform specific technical or administrative services primarily for the benefit of other units within a reporting unit. Service Centers include "recharge centers" and the "specialized service facilities" defined in Section 200.468 of the Federal Code of Regulations. (The codes identified below should be inserted on the appropriate line for each service center listed. The column numbers correspond to the paragraphs listed below that provide the codes. Explain on a Continuation Sheet if any of the services are charged to users on a basis other than usage of the services. Enter "Z" in Column 1, if not applicable.)

3.1.0 Indirect Cost Categories

I. Accumulation Method

Interest

The interest expense in this indirect cost pool is interest on debt associated with buildings, and capital improvements as defined in Section 200.449 of the CFR. The University's total interest expense is recorded in the accounting system. The interest associated with the individual construction projects are calculated based on an analysis of bond issues. A particular bond may finance several construction projects. The amount of interest allocated to each construction project is based on that project's proportional share of the bond proceeds. The interest expense included in the indirect cost proposal is limited to interest on construction projects completed on or after July 1, 1982 as required by Section 200.449 of the CFR.

Departmental Administration

Departmental administration expenses are only partially identified by the accounting system. This cost pool consists of the administrative costs of the deans' offices; costs associated with the administrative work of department heads, faculty and other professional research and academic staff; and other departmental support services. The costs of the deans' offices are identified by the accounting system. The costs associated with administrative activities of department heads, faculty and other professional research and academic staff are covered by a standard allowance of 3.6% of modified total direct costs specified in paragraph B.6.a.(2) of the CFR.

Departmental support costs include the salaries and fringe benefits of administrative and clerical staff (excluding direct charges for administrative and clerical services under the conditions discussed in 2.1.0), professional departmental administrators, office supplies, postage, travel associated with administrative activities, etc. This portion of departmental administration expenses is accumulated through an analysis of departmental operating fund accounts and the application of "Direct Charge Equivalents" (DCEs). As discussed in 2.1.0, DCEs are mathematical formulas that estimate the portion of departmental operating fund expenses that should be assigned directly to instruction and other non-sponsored direct cost objectives (collectively referred to as "instruction"), and the portion that should be included in the departmental administration indirect cost pool. The DCE ratio used for general support salaries and wages is general support salaries and wages attributable directly to sponsored projects, divided by faculty and professional salaries attributable directly to sponsored projects. This ratio is applied to unrestricted faculty and professional salaries, excluding the standard 3.6% faculty administrative allowance. The DCE ratios are developed and applied on a department-by-department basis. Non-labor costs are distributed on a department-by-department basis between departmental administration and instruction based on the distribution of salaries and wages.

State Central Services

State Central Service costs are the University of Connecticut's allocated share of the costs of central support services provided by the State of Connecticut. The allocations are made in a State-wide Cost Allocation Plan developed by the state and approved by the Federal Department of Health and Human Services, Cost Allocation Services.

All Other Indirect Cost Categories

The remaining indirect cost categories are identified by the University's accounting system. As noted in 1.2.0, adjustments and reclassifications are needed to recast the information in the University's financial statements into the pool costs required by the CFR. These adjustments and reclassifications are listed and explained in schedules included in the University's indirect cost proposal.

II. Allocation Base Code

Depreciation on Capital Improvements to Land

Depreciation on capital improvements to land is allocated based on the standard method in the CFR Appendix III B.2.b.(4), which uses a combination of full-time-equivalent student and employee data and salary data in a multi-step allocation process.

Library

Library costs are allocated based on a cost analysis study of the usage of the University's library by different categories of users and functions. The study is conducted in accordance with the requirements described in the CFR Appendix III B.2.d.(3).

Student Administration and Services

The Student Administration and Services indirect cost pool is allocated entirely to the instruction function in accordance with the standard allocation base in the CFR Appendix III B.9.b.

3.2.0 (a) Scientific Computer Operations

The University does not have a service center that provides scientific computer services.

(b) Business Data Processing

The University Computer Center (UCC) operations support both academic and administrative functions. The Computer Center is considered a general support operation. This center does not charge users for its services. The cost of the Center is in the General Administration and General Expense pool. Major parts of the operation support the University's internal network, links to external websites, e-mail and accounting systems.

(c) Animal Care Facilities

Animal care services are charged to users for services provided based on a schedule of rates. The fee for animal services consists of the aggregate costs and allocable share of F&A costs.

Space usage for procedure rooms, operating and recovery rooms for animal care facilities have been prorated between animal care and direct uses. The prorating is accomplished by means of interviews with animal care facility managers.

Column (2) – Burden Code

Space costs are allocated to the service centers listed in this section. Administrative costs are not allocated to these service centers, since the charges for the services are included in the user bases for the allocation of G&A costs.

3.4.0 Composition of Indirect Cost Pools

1. Depreciation

These cost pools include depreciation on the University's buildings, equipment, and capital improvements computed in accordance with section 200.436 of the CFR. See Part IV for additional information on the computation of depreciation. The depreciation cost pools exclude depreciation on assets paid for with Federal funds. The equipment depreciation pool also excludes depreciation on equipment charged to non-federal sponsored agreements in accordance with guidance issued by OMB. If the University has title to this equipment, depreciation on the remaining undepreciated cost of the equipment will be included in the equipment depreciation pool after the non-federal agreements expire.

2. Interest

This cost pool is interest on debt associated with buildings, equipment and capital improvements as defined in section 200.449 of the CFR.

3. Operations and Maintenance Expenses (O&M)

This cost pool consist of expenses incurred for the administration, supervision, operation, maintenance, preservation and protection of the institution's physical plant, as defined in the CFR Appendix III B.4. It includes expenses incurred for such items as janitorial and utility services; repairs and ordinary or normal alternations of buildings, furniture and equipment; care of grounds; maintenance and operation of buildings and other plant facilities; security; disaster preparedness; environmental safety; hazardous waste disposal; property, liability, and all other insurance relating to property; space and capital leasing; facility planning and management; and central receiving. The O&M expense category includes its allocable share of fringe benefits, depreciation and interest.

4. General Administration and General Expenses (GA)

This cost pool consists of costs that have been incurred for the general executive and administrative offices and other expenses of a general nature which do not relate solely to any major function of the University, as defined in the CFR Appendix III B.5. These expenses include the expenses of the central offices of the institution such as the offices for institution wide financial management, financial planning and budget, human resources; the office of the general counsel; purchasing, safety and risk management, mail services, and the operations of the central administrative management information systems.

The GA cost pool includes its allocable share of fringe benefits, depreciation, interest, and O&M expenses. The GA cost pool also includes costs allocated from the Board of Trustees and President's office as described in Part VII.

5. Departmental Administration (DA)

This cost pool is comprised of expenses incurred for administrative and supporting services that benefit common or joint objectives in academic deans' offices, academic departments and divisions, and organized research units, as defined in the CFR Appendix III B.6. See 3.1.0 for additional information on composition and accumulation of departmental administration.

6. Sponsored Projects Administration (SPA)

The SPA cost pool consist of expenses for Sponsored Programs Services, which is responsible for pre and post administration of all sponsored projects, and a portion of the Vice President for Research office. The SPA cost pool also includes its allocable share of fringe benefits, depreciation, interest, O&M, and GA expenses.

7. Library

Library expenses include the operational costs of the main and regional campus libraries and materials and books purchased for the libraries, as defined in the CFR Appendix III B.8. The costs of rare books are excluded. Library fines are used to offset expenses. The Library cost pool includes its allocable share of fringe benefits, depreciation, interest, O&M and GA expenses.

8. Student Administration and Services (SAS)

This pool consists of expenses associated with the administration of student affairs, including such activities as: dean of students, admissions, registrar, counseling, placement services, student advisors, student health and infirmary services. The SAS cost pool includes its allocable share of fringe benefits, depreciation, interest, O&M, and GA expenses.

9. State Central Service Costs

As indicated in 3.1.0, state central service costs are the University of Connecticut's allocated share of costs of central support services provided by the State of Connecticut.

3.5.0 Composition of Allocation Bases

1. Depreciation on Buildings, Equipment and Capital Improvements

Building depreciation is allocated on a building-by-building basis among the functions performed in each building (e.g., organized research, instruction, etc.) based on the amount of net assignable square feet occupied by each function. Functional usage is determined on a room-by-room basis through a space inventory and functional use survey, which assigns a specific percentage of use to each function performed in each room. For rooms used by more than one function, the percentage applicable to each function is based on a review of the activities performed in the room, the accounts that support those activities, and the occupants of the room. When evaluating the functional use of a room, care is taken to ensure that the space classification is consistent with the functional classification of the expenditure accounts that funded the activities in the room.

Equipment depreciation is separated into two subpools – equipment that can be identified to specific rooms and equipment that cannot be identified to specific rooms. Depreciation on equipment identified to specific rooms is allocated based on the functional use of the room in which the equipment is located. Depreciation on equipment not identified to rooms is allocated based on the functional use of space of the department that owns the equipment.

As noted in 3.1.0, depreciation on capital improvements to land is allocated based on the standard method in the CFR Appendix III B.2.b.(4).

2. Interest

Interest costs are allocated on the same basis as depreciation on the buildings and equipment to which the interest relates.

3. Operation and Maintenance (O&M)

Environmental health and safety costs, which include radiation, chemical, and biological safety expenses are allocated based on the square footage of laboratory space. Remaining O&M expenses are allocated to benefiting functions based on the net assignable square feet occupied by each function on a University-wide basis. Functional usage is determined by the space survey described under depreciation on buildings, equipment and capital improvements.

4. General Administration and General Expenses (GA)

GA expenses are allocated to benefiting functions based on modified total costs. Modified total costs consists of all salaries and wages, fringe benefits, materials, supplies, services, travel and subgrants and subcontracts up to the first $25,000 of each subgrant or subcontract (regardless of the period covered by the subgrant or subcontract). Modified total costs exclude equipment, capital expenditures, charges for patient care, tuition remission, rental costs of off-site facilities, scholarships, and fellowships as well as the portion of each subgrant and subcontract in excess of $25,000.

5. Departmental Administration (DA)

DA expenses are allocated to benefiting functions based on modified total direct costs (MTDC). MTDC consists of the same cost elements as the modified total cost base used to allocate GA. As stipulated in the CFR Appendix III B.6., the administrative expenses of the dean's office of each college and school are allocated to the academic departments and other organizational units within that college or school. The administrative expenses of each department, plus the department's share of the dean's office costs, are allocated to the direct functions within that department.

6. Sponsored Project Administration (SPA)

SPA expenses are allocated based on the MTDC of the sponsored projects within each major function of the institution. MTDC for this purpose consists of the same cost elements as the allocation base for GA and DA expenses.

7. Library

Library costs are allocated to the major functions of the University based on a library cost analysis study as described in CFR Appendix III B.8.

8. Student Administration and Services

The Student Administration and Services cost pool is allocated entirely to the instruction function in accordance with the standard base in CFR Appendix III B.9.

9. State Central Services

State Central Services costs are allocated on the same basis as GA expenses.

10. Final Distribution Base

The final distribution base (i.e., the base used to allocate the accumulated indirect costs of each major function to sponsored agreements within that function) is also MTDC and consist of the same cost elements as the base for allocating the administrative cost pools noted above.

11. Cost Sharing

Cost sharing of direct costs on sponsored agreements is included in the same indirect cost allocation base (e.g., organized research) as the costs charged to the agreements. The University's policy on cost sharing is cited in 2.5.0. and 2.5.2. The procedures for identifying cost shared salaries are also described in 2.5.0. and 2.5.2. The organized research base also includes amounts in excess of the NIH salary cap.

4.1.1 Asset Valuations and Useful Lives

In accordance with section 200.436 of the CFR, the period of useful service (useful life) established in each case for usable capital assets must take into consideration such factors as type of construction, nature of the equipment, technological developments in the particular area, and the renewal and replacement policies followed for the individual items or classes of assets involved.

4.3.0 Treatment of Gains and Losses on the Disposition of Depreciable Property

For assets with a material value, gains and losses on disposals of the assets are credited or charged to the same cost pools as the depreciation of the assets was charged.

4.4.0 Criteria for Capitalization

The dollar amount and minimum useful life shown in this section of the DS-2 form apply to equipment. Capitalization of additions, renovations and improvements to real property is governed by State of Connecticut policy issued by the Office of the State Comptroller. Under this policy, all additions, renovations, and improvements to real property that clearly and significantly enhance the value of the property must be capitalized.

Instructions for Part VI

This part covers the measurement and assignment of costs for employee pensions, post retirement benefits other than pensions (including post retirement health benefits) and insurance. Some organizations may incur all of these costs at the main campus level or for public institutions at the governmental unit level, while others may incur them at subordinate organization levels. Still others may incur a portion of these costs at the main campus level and the balance at subordinate organization levels.

Where the segment (reporting unit) does not directly incur such costs, the segment should, on a continuation sheet, identify the organizational entity that incurs and records such costs. When the costs allocated to Federally sponsored agreements are material, and the reporting unit does not have access to the information needed to complete an item, the reporting unit should require that entity to complete the applicable portions of this Part VI. (See item 4, page (i), General Instructions)

Instructions for Part VII

This part should be completed only by the central system office or a group office of an educational system when that office is responsible for administering two or more segments, where it allocates its costs to such segments and where at least one of the segments is required to file Parts I through VI of the Disclosure Statement.

The reporting unit (central system or group office) should disclose how costs of services provided by the reporting unit are, or will be, accumulated and allocated to applicable segments of the institution. For a central system office, disclosure should cover the entire institution. For a group office, disclosure should cover all of the subordinate organizations administered by that group office.

7.1.0 Organizational Structure.

On a continuation sheet, list all segments of the university or university system, including hospitals, Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDC's), Government-owned Contractor-operated (GOCO) facilities, and lower-tier group offices serviced by the reporting unit.

7.2.0 Cost Accumulation and Allocation.

On a continuation sheet, provide a description of:

- A. The services provided to segments of the university or university system (including hospitals, FFRDC's, GOCO facilities, etc.), in brief.
- B. How the costs of the services are identified and accumulated.
- C. The basis used to allocate the accumulated costs to the benefiting segments.
- D. Any costs that are transferred from a segment to the central system office or the intermediate administrative office, and which are reallocated to another segment(s). If none, so state.
- E. Any fixed management fees that are charged to a segment(s) in lieu of a prorata or allocation basis and the basis of such charges. If none, so state.
